6th House - Wellness/health, service, mentoring, mundane, daily routine, rituals. This house of ‘I analyze’ symbolizes the sacred devotion needed on a devoted path of purification as well as the organization necessary to support Yeshua’s ministry. The Sacred Healer.

7th House - Relationships, partnerships, marriage. In this house of 'I balance' we can see Mary as Yeshua's equal and partner, embodying the theme of harmony. The Sacred Partner.

8th House - Sexuality, death & rebirth, the mysteries of the occult. In the house of 'I desire' we often undergo profound transformations. Here the Magdalene embodies resurrection, mystery, and spiritual initiations. Initiate of Mysteries.

9th House - Philosophy, higher learning, publishing, travel. Known for her travels across waters to foreign lands and people gives credence to the energies of the 'I see' house. She was one who hungered for higher knowledge and spiritual explorations. Sacred Pilgrim.

10th House - Calling, reputation, public position. Whilst her story has endured social repression and rejection, in the 'I use' house we can see also a steadfast faith, responsibility, and resilience to greater purposes. Her myths and stories are veiled in doubt, misunderstanding, mystery, and error. Yet she remains a powerful and tall image and icon of sacred feminine wisdom. Tower of the Flock.

11th House - Community, the collective - humanities, visions for the future, friends, social change. In the house of 'I know' Mary represented a break from religious dogma, bringing forth hidden truths, radical new teachings, and challenging the patriarchy. The Revolutionary Mystic.

12th House - Spirituality, the unseen, secrets, surrender, sacrifice, service. In the house of 'I believe' we find Mary's energy being a connection for divine love as she embodies the deepest of faith, devotion, and spiritual transcendence. Mystical Beloved.
